- September's Minutes: accepted as is
- Treasure's report: read and accepted

Old Business:

Our "end of season" B-B-Q to Whiskey Rock was attended by 29 riders with 18 machines. The day's weather held off and we had mostly clear riding. Our BBQ was delicious, as usual. Orlan Meckle and David Conley took charge of the BBQing duties.

New Business:

- The Christmas party is scheduled for 12/8 at 6pm. Nancy will email a request for donations for the raffle baskets to be brought to the meeting in November.
- Our "off season" breakfast will start Saturday, 11/4 and it will be held at the Timber Creek Grill in Spokane at 9am
- There were 7 logo entries submitted. All submissions were passed around the room and a vote was taken. The logo submitted by Richard Flores won and he will be awarded the $100 prize.
- Nominations for the position of President were opened. Orlan Meckle was unanimously voted to the position of President.
- Nominations for the position of Vice President were opened. Arnie Howe and David Conley were nominated. Arnie won the vote.
- Steve Mudge, John Dobberthien & Craig Brockus were elected to fill board positions. Joe will step down.
- It was mentioned that we need to choose a charity to donate the money we raise at the Christmas party. Several suggestions were made and we will vote at the November meeting.

Rides: Orlan announced he would like to lead a ride to Harrison, depending on the weather. An email will be sent to confirm

Meeting adjourned: 7:05
